Project: Adaptation Programme & Financing Mechanism for the Pilot Programme for Climate Resilience, Jamaica
(AP&FM-PPCR)

Type of Consultancy: Individual Consultant

Duration: November 2017-December 2017

The Ministry of Economic Growth & Job Creation is searching for an Individual Consultant with experience in undertaking evaluations of donor funded projects. The overall objective of this consultancy is to conduct a Midterm Evaluation (MTE) of the AP&FM-PPCR. The MTE is to be undertaken halfway through project implementation to analyse whether the project is ontrack, what problems or challenges the project is encountering, and what corrective actions are required. The evaluation is to assess operational aspects, such as project management and implementation of activities and the level of progress towards the objectives.

The full terms of reference (TORs) may be accessed at the Ministry's website at www.megjc.gov.jm

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

- A Bachelor's Degree in Social Sciences, Management Studies or Environmental Sciences with more than 15 years' experience in project planning and design; and project proposal development for funding.
- Experience working with international organizations in programme analysis and monitoring; and knowledge of the Inter-American Development Bank's (IDB) systems, processes and operations for approving and implementing projects.
- Experience in undertaking similar evaluations of donor-funded projects and evaluating projects in the areas of climate change, adaptation, environment or agriculture is considered an asset

A Consultant will be selected based on the Comparison of Qualifications method set out in IDB's Policies: GN-2350-9.

Curriculum Vitae must be delivered to the address indicated below in a sealed envelope or by email in Microsoft Word or PDF format, by Monday October 30, 2017.
