Dear Mrs Mambro

Judicial Committee of The Privy Council Sitting in Kingston Jamaica

I have been asked by the Attorney General and Minister of Justice, Senator Dorothy C Lightbourne QC to indicate that the Government of Jamaica would like to explore the idea of a visit by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council to conduct hearings in Jamaica on a future date, convenient to the Court.

The Government of Jamaica consider it important that the country's final Court of Appeal is seen by its citizens to be participating in the Jamaican Justice system on location, albeit for a short period.

The Government would like to explore the issue of the cost of such an exercise, and whether feasible for such a sitting to take place in 2010/2011.

Whilst we will be happy to pass any response to this communication to the Authorities in Jamaica the Attorney General's contact details are as follows: -

Ministry of Justice
NCB Building
South Tower
2 Oxford Road
Kingston 5
Jamaica

I wait to hear from you.

Yours sincerely
